EPISODE 21 GUIDE

IN THIS EPISODE, CHILDREN WILL

- learn they can train their brain to enjoy each moment as it comes
- travel to Memphis, Tennessee in the USA
- be inspired by Nicole Cardoza, a yoga instructor and social entrepreneur

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

- What does Nicole imagine when she feels overwhelmed? (that her brain is like a radio)
- What does being mindful mean? (focusing on what's happening here and now)
- How might being mindful help you?

TRY THESE ACTIVITIES

1. Complete Weeks 19 & 20 "Be Mindful" in the Big Life Journal - 1st Edition. Practice mindful smiling every morning when your child wakes up. If done regularly, this exercise will make children happier, healthier, and more positive.
2. Use My Mindfulness Bingo (in our Positivity & Connection Kit) to help your child feel more connected to themselves by practicing mindfulness. This fun bingo game is the perfect introduction to various mindfulness activities.
3. Check out our Mindfulness Playlist on Spotify! This music will help your children relax while doing mindfulness activities.
4. Mindful Brain Breaks (in our Positivity & Connection Kit) are great activities to do throughout the day. When your children are mindful, they're paying attention to what they are seeing, hearing, tasting, smelling – everything in this moment, right now. They only take a few minutes but can make a difference.
5. Check out the Podcast Activity Kit for Seasons 1 & 2. The kit includes engaging activities to boost self-esteem, teach the importance of learning from mistakes, encourage resilience and more!

The Big Life Kids Podcast is produced by Big Life Journal and is available FREE on Apple Podcasts, Spotify, Google Play, and other platforms. Listen to Episode 21 on Apple Podcast (also available on other platforms). All kits can be found on biglifejournal.com.
